

HoloRent

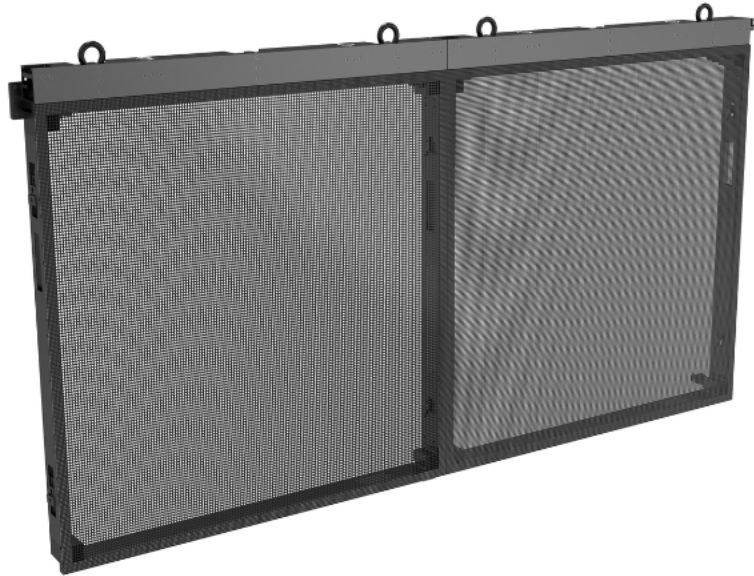

Open views. Large display surfaces.

A lightweight transparent cabinet for indoor events and exhibitions.

Indoor rental

An open structure for event design

See through the display

An open-grid surface retains a view of the space behind the content. Transparency varies with pixel pitch.

Build the viewing angle

Connect cabinets in flat or shallow curved layouts, with angle settings up to $\pm 5^\circ$. Plan service around complete panel access.

Project context

Share the screen layout, viewing distance and sightlines through the display.

Technical needs

Confirm suspension points, cable routes and access for panel replacement.

Details to confirm

Provide typical content so transparency and image detail can be considered together.
